All cars will lead to Georgetown Field this afternoon, for the Höltoppers will meet the Carlisle Indians in what prom-less to be the best football same on the lies to be the best football same on the start promptly of $\(\text{$a$}\) clock.

Coach Nielsen put the team through $\(\text{$a}\) sim signal drill yesterday, but no serimage was attenuted. The Hillioppers are in this-class condition, and $\(\text{$a}\) hot battle is assured on the Goorgetown grid-from this afternoon.

Glen Warner and his tribe of tedskins reached the Ehbott Floure last night, and reached the Ethinit riouse last night, and when asked for a prediction as to the outcome of the fray said: "I have not sitnessed the Georgetown team in action, and so cannot say first how good they are, but I have heard a lot about the Hillioppers, and from those reports I expect a hard battle. My team is in the less of shape, and I look for mother victory for Carlisle."

WHAT THE COACHES SAY ON EVE OF THE BATTLE

GLEN WARNER. I have a better team this year than last. While I have not wit-nessed the Georgetown eleven in action, they will have to go some to best my Indiana.

FRED MIELSEN.

Georgetown will put a good team on the field against the Indians, and a victory is what I ex-My boys have been working hard the past week, and with an even break of luck, should show better football than they did the last time they met.

sest of rhape, and I book for another section for Carlisle.

The Indians look to be the picture of perfect health, and the film and Gray cleven will have to play some hard footgall to land the sig end of the score.

Seam for the mane can still be had at the different sporting goods stores, and the getting the past-boards at these places will save the rush at the Hiller plate, for a record-breaking crowd is expected at the contest.

This game will serve to get a good line on the first bir game of the season, will be the first bir game of the season.

The game will be called promptly at a p. m., and as a great crowd is expected the first bir game of the season.

taking advantage of the numerous fumilies of the Tech backs, Army and Navy Preis defeated the high school boys yesterday, Il to 0. Both of the touchdowns were made in the first and second quarters. In the last two quarsecond quarters. In the last two quar-ters the Machinists took a decided brace and held the Preps. Tech had a chance to score in the third quarter, when by a serious of line plunices and end runs they carried the hall to the 5-yard line. Helm tried for a drop kick over the goal posts but failed. John Jenkins, Kimberly, and Pember-ton starred for the winners, while the work of Heine, and Eckendorf was the feature of the Blacksmiths' play. Line-up and summery:

six orier days have not changed the general aspect of the situation as viewed from this augle. It may turn out to be the greatest aeries ever contested, but if one is wrong one may as well be all wrong, and there is no apparent reason why the Giants, if they win at all, should not win so easily as to cause the Ath-letter admirers to wonder how they ever figured them a change. On the other figured them a chance. On the other hand, if the New York club loses, it may be in the same dolorous fashion.
